Dear Mr. Newman:

As per our recent phone conversation my wife, Lillian, and I hereby authorize you to dispose of our general coin collection, consisting of ancient, foreign and United States coins. As we discussed it is our wish that the coins be used as an incentive for you or other persons you select who will make contributions to the Jewish Federation of St. Louis. The contributions are to be made directly to the Federation. We wish no monies to be paid to us and are happy to have you give the coins to those who will contribute.

Since we are not giving any money directly to the Jewish Federation, we will not take or expect any tax deduction.

Thank you for your interest and help.

Sincerely yours,

Aaron Hendin

Dear Dr. Hendin:

Your enthusiasm for Israel is contagious. A few of my friends have had no difficulty in helping me line up donations aggregating more than you expected and we are still at work. Your purpose will be accomplished and you will make a number of people happy by virtue of their numismatic interest.

I will keep in touch with you as matters progress and will always remember the sincere feeling which you evidenced by the action you have taken. We also appreciate your confidence in us.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Bendin:

Your desire to form the American Israel Numismatic Society, in St. Louis, is a wonderful thing to do if there are sufficient people interested in the area. To have an organization merely for the sake of having another organization, would be wrong. To develop interest in Israel and its accomplishments and problems is, no doubt, a strong auxiliary motive. I will join if the organization develops. Unfortunately, I will be in Boston, working, on the night of your organizational meeting.

Thank you for asking me.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC
